SALAD DECORATION COMPETITION
REPORT

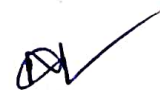

On Annual Function “Basant Utsav” on March 4, 2025, a Salad Decoration Competition has been organized in college premises under the aegis of Home Science Departmental Council. In this competition, college students have participated with great enthusiasm, and they excelled their creative thinking and art skills. The participants have decorated salad by using various types of vegetables, fruits and herbs. They have decorated salads with specific and attractive styles. The girl students have used vegetables to cut flowers and in circular and triangular shapes. Some students have also presented their salads as peacock and bird styles in a very attractive way with the 'minimalistic' style. At the end, the Judging Pannel evaluated all salad presentations based on their creativity, presentation aesthetics, ingredients used, taste and hygiene. In this competition, Kapil Singh Rana, Khushi Gupta and Rajvinder Kaur won First, Second and Third prize, respectively. Then after, winners have been awarded prizes by the Principal.
